Americans for Prosperity Applauds Indiana State Senator Jim Banks

-Signs No Climate Tax Pledge-

ARLINGTON, VA—The free market grassroots group Americans for Prosperity (AFP) today applauded Indiana State Senator Jim Banks (17th District) for signing the group’s “No Climate Tax Pledge.” Banks joins more than 500 bipartisan lawmakers and candidates on the federal, state and local levels pledging to “oppose legislation relating to climate change that includes a net increase in government revenue.”

“The one thing elected officials should be able to agree on is that global warming shouldn’t be used as an excuse to hike taxes on citizens and businesses,” said AFP Vice President for Policy Phil Kerpen. “We encourage all of Indiana’s elected officials and candidates for elected office to sign the pledge.”

Indiana signers include: U.S. Senator Dan Coats; U.S. Representatives Marlin Stutzman, Todd Rokita, Dan Burton, Mike Pence, Larry Bucshon and Todd Young.

“Using the guise of climate change to transfer dollars from hard-working citizens to bureaucratic big government is unacceptable,” said Kerpen. “Regardless of their stance on global warming, this should be common ground for all of our elected officials at all levels of government.”

The pledge is available online at www.NoClimateTax.com. AFP does not endorse candidates. All elected officials and candidates are encouraged to sign the pledge and go on the record in opposition to using the climate change issue to increase taxes and grow the size of government.
