Americans for Prosperity Applauds Congressman Jeff Duncan -Signs No Climate Tax Pledge-

EASLEY—The free market grassroots group Americans for Prosperity (AFP) today applauded Congressman Jeff Duncan (3rd District) for signing the group’s “No Climate Tax Pledge.” Duncan joins more than 400 bipartisan lawmakers and candidates on the federal, state and local levels pledging to “oppose legislation relating to climate change that includes a net increase in government revenue.”

“The one thing elected officials should be able to agree on is that global warming shouldn’t be used as an excuse to hike taxes on citizens and businesses,” said AFP Director of Policy James Valvo. “We encourage all of South Carolina’s elected officials and candidates for elected office to sign the pledge.”

South Carolina signers include: Senator Tim Scott; U.S. Representatives Joe Wilson, Trey Gowdy, and Mick Mulvaney; and various state lawmakers.

“Using the guise of climate change to transfer dollars from hardworking citizens to bureaucratic big government is unacceptable,” said Valvo. “Regardless of their stance on global warming, this should be common ground for all of our elected officials at all levels of government.”

The pledge is available online at www.NoClimateTax.com. AFP does not endorse candidates. All elected officials and candidates are encouraged to sign the pledge and go on the record in opposition to using the climate change issue to increase taxes and grow the size of government.
